HOVER FAMILY

Descendants of

Manuel Hover

MANUEL HOVER

THE HOVER FAMILY

The fiftieth Hover-Adgate family reunion (1938) presents these genealogical notes, dealing mainly with the original Hover ancestor in America, Hendrick Hover, his children, and the descendants of his son, CAPTAIN EMANUEL HOVER. This is in no way complete, but it is hoped that information on other branches of the Hover family can be collected and published next year and in following years, with fuller notes and corrections. Please send in information on your own family, using appended sheet, and any other data you may have, to the Hover-Adgate historian, Mrs. John E. Breese, 1501 Oakland Pkwy., Lima, Ohio.

The Hover family is deeply indebted to Mr. John Curry Hover, 48 Wall St., New York City, for information on the early history of the Hovers in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. His researches indicate that the origin of the family is German or Swiss, rather than Dutch, as the current tradition has had it.

THE HOVER FAMILY

1600 acre farm. Her father was a descendant of Elder Brewster (Mayflower passenger).
m. (2) 1850 to Mrs. Fanny Lathrop Ezekiel kept a diary of a trip he made from his home in Pa. 1801-2, which is interesting. Soon after this he moved to Trumbull Co., O. where he and Alexander Sutherland were the first settlers of Duck Creek, Newton Twp. Ezekiel made the first survey here 1806, was county surveyor, justice of the peace, had a mill, was charter member of Erie Masonic Lodge, Warren. Came to Allen Co., O. 1833, with brothers Joseph and Manuel.

Trumbull Co. to Charles Rose, b. 1792; d. 27 Aug. 1854, Allen Co. O.

It is interesting to note that three brothers and a sister from the Hover family married three sisters and a brother of the Adgate family. This is of course the origin of the close association of the two families.

When the three brothers Ezekiel, Joseph and Manuel came to Allen Co. in 1833, they lived with their families in the Shawnee Indian Council House and the home of the chief PHT until their cabins were built. The Indians had mostly gone previously.

NOTES ON THE NAME HOVER-HUBER-HOOVER, by Mr.John Curry Hover

I have been satisfied for some time that our ancestor Hendrick Hover, whom Virkus in Vol.V of his Compendium of American Genealogy names as the first of the Walpack Hovers in this country,is the same person as Johan Hendricus Huber (Hoever) whose name appears in the records of the Smithfield(Pa.)Dutch Reformed Church between 1742 and 1747.This conclusion is warranted by the check of names and baptisms of two children,Susanna and Emanuel.Abbott,History of Cortright Family,refers to the Huber-Hover family as Swiss in origin.The first pastor of the Dutch churches of the valley was Swiss,and in making the church records must have been familiar with the name,so the spelling "Huber" is no error.This family has no connection with the spelling "Hoover,"which is southern Pennsylvania origin although originally Huber also. Huber in South German dialect was pronounced Hoober or Hoover,but our forbears settled among Dutch neighbors, to whom the double "o" sound was unfamiliar.They pronounced it with a long "O" and the change in spelling followed.Most of us are still carrying on the struggle of 200 years to keep out the second "O".
